

As an American citizen, there are few things I value more than our current access to a diversity of opinions in print, television, and radio media. The proposal that you are currently considering would hurt every single American citizen by allowing the control of the media to be in the hands of so few. I urge you to reject this proposal on June 2.